¹² Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed – not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence – continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³ for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose. ¹⁴ Do everything without grumbling or arguing, ¹⁵ so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation.” Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky ¹⁶ as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain. ¹⁷ But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸ So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

A large colony of King penguins is shown. In the center-right, an adult King penguin stands out from a dense crowd of fluffy brown chicks. The adult has a dark blue body, a bright yellow patch on its cheek, and a long, pointed beak with an orange tip. The chicks are covered in thick, brown down and have dark blue beaks. The text "called to be different" is overlaid in the center, with "called" and "different" in large yellow font and "to be" in a smaller white font.
